AAFP Webinar: Wellness and Wellbeing for Medical Students – Feb. 16

Medical school was hard enough before a pandemic, and medical careers--although rewarding in so many ways--also present challenges to personal well-being at every stage. The AAFP is bringing together national experts on wellness and well-being to focus on the unique needs of medical students on Tuesday, February 16, 2021, at 8pm EST. In this webinar, students will learn about overcoming challenges to their personal wellness as a student, resident, and into practice and walk away with strategies to prioritize well-being and stay passionate about their purpose. Call for FAFP Resident Director Nominations Deadline February 28, 2021

Shawn Hamm, DO
Resident President

John Adams, DO
Resident VP

Tisha Van Pelt, MD
Resident Sec/Treas.

It is that time of year that the Florida Academy of Family Physicians will be holding its annual elections for Resident Director slots. Please see the following Resident Director Guidelines and the 2021 Candidate Form. Both contain important information about the criteria and the obligations of being a Resident Director.

Elected Resident Directors in the past have been 3rd year Residents due in part because they have spent prior years attending Academy meetings and have developed a strong understanding for the Academy.

The application deadline is February 28, 2021, and the elections will be virtually (with additional details to follow). Please send all materials to Jennifer Young at jyoung@fafp.org. For questions, please contact Jennifer Young for additional information. We look forward to receiving your nominations!
